2022 -2023 School Calendar

TO: Dr. Joel Boyd, Superintendent of Schools

FROM: Robin Desmond, Chief Academic Officer Robin Desmond

DATE: April 26, 2022

Below please find the proposed 2022-2023 school calendar. There are several notable changes contained within this draft calendar. In collaboration with the UTL, four Early Release Days have been eliminated and two staff professional development days have been added. This change will allow for continued staff professional development while providing additional learning time for students. The two additional professional development days would typically be added in August before the start of the school year; however, for the 2022-2023 school year, a primary election is scheduled for Tuesday, September 6, 2022. I would recommend adding one of the two additional staff professional development days on that date, since schools will be closed to students.
